PRODUCT NAME: CADRA-VIEW for VMS, Version 7.1

SPD 33.88.01

DESCRIPTION

This software product is developed by ADRA Systems, Inc. and furnished under Digital Equipment Corporation's Standard Terms and Conditions.

CADRA-VIEW™ for VMS is a software product which provides the capability of sharing CADRA-III drawings with other individuals in the organization. It provides a low-cost solution for view-only and red-lining requirements in support of concurrent engineering environments without altering the master drawing file. It provides query capabilities regarding geometric properties and supports industry standard interfaces such as DXF, IGES and Raster files. In addition, it supports HPGL™ and PostScript® output including red-lining additions.

CADRA-VIEW Features

- Grants view-only access of CADRA-III drawings to prevent alteration of master drawings files.
- Full window support for split windows, panning, and zooming.
- Allows access to direct translators, an industry standard interface such as DXF, IGES and Raster Files.
- Plot support includes HPGL or PostScript output including red-line additions.
- Provides query capabilities regarding geometric properties, including section properties, dimensions, and distances between two points.

CADRA Red-line Features

- Red-lining capabilities to edit and add comments, corrections, and questions without affecting the actual CADRA-III drawings.
- Two drawings can be compared to determine the difference between revisions or to check if the correct revisions were made.
- The "checker" function within Red-Lining uses three separate sets of graphics called overlays. Drawings are read into the "active" overlay and then the red-line information is written on the "markup" overlay.

Then a comparison can be made between the different revisions and the results are put on the "compare" overlay.
